Local Cookbook Receives RECOMMENDED Review

WINDSOR – Penny Lane Press is pleased to announce that Colorado cookbook, Secret Recipes from the Corner Market, written by Carol Ann Kates has recently received a raving review from US Review of Books. Winning multiple awards, Secret Recipes from the Corner Market garnered the following recognitions: First Place in the CIPA EVVY Awards, “Honorable Mention” in the Writer’s Digest 14th Annual International Self-Published Book Awards, and “Notable” in the Eric Hofer Book Awards as well as being selected as a Top Ten Favorite Cookbooks by the Denver Post Food Staff.

Secret Recipes from the Corner Market is a delightful collection of both forgotten favorites and trendy upscale recipes. Kates, a former grocer and deli operator, developed these recipes for her customers to provide them with creative ways to use every-day fare.

Flavored with entertaining anecdotes and historical tidbits for a trip down memory lane, this book is more than a cookbook. LeAnn Thieman, Co-Author of Chicken Soup for the Nurse’s Soul, says: “At a time when people are yearning for the traditions, the home-made, the nostalgic good-ole-days, this book nurtures our bodies and souls.”

This revolutionary new cookbook contains a unique primer, which teaches readers that great food begins with shopping. Pat Kendall, professor of Food and Nutrition at Colorado State University says: “Sprinkled with tips on how to select and store the ingredients needed for the recipes, Secret Recipes from the Corner Market is ‘a must have’ for the cookbook enthusiast, new bride, or even the casual cook.”
